City to Unveil New Lifesaving Equipment

For Immediate Release
Contact Jeff Buell- 270-4554

(September 26, 2005- TROY)- The City of Troy, Mayor Harry J Tutunjian, members of the City Council, and firefighters will hold a press conference on Tuesday morning at 11 a.m. inside of the Central Fire Station to unveil new automated compression machines and 12-lead defibrillators.

Recently the City of Troy purchased more than $100,000 worth of emergency medical equipment geared towards improving performance in critical life saving situations.

The two new pieces of equipment will both be used to improve the emergency medical responses from paramedics in the City of Troy. All members of the media are invited to attend the unveiling, where a demonstration will be given on the benefits of the new equipment.

Any questions can be addressed by Jeff Buell at 270-4554.
